RINKSIDE CAFÉ COMING TO PRINTSCAPE ARENA AT SOUTHPOINTE

Scheduled to Open in Early May

Canonsburg, PA - Printscape Arena at Southpointe is pleased to announce the addition of the Rinkside Café which will be opening in the main entrance lobby of the arena in early May. "The Rinkside Café will be an extension of best-in-class customer experience at Printscape Arena," said John Dziak, owner of Printscape Imaging and Graphics, who is the facility naming rights partner and also recently opened an additional print shop location at the facility. "This will be a huge differentiator for the arena and our brand."

Co-owners of the new café will be managed by BJ Pustovrh and Kerri Banasick. "You will be able to smell the coffee as you walk in the entrance", said Pustovrh. "We plan to offer premium coffee and espresso drinks as well as fresh bakery from some of our communities favorites and much more". Banasick added, "we will have online ordering capability, curbside pick-up and many other custom service options for the frequent arena visitors as well as Southpointe business community".

We are excited to see this additional offering for our customers at Printscape Arena, said Cody Skraitz, Printscape Arena Director of Operations "this will be a nice convenience for our families that are at the facility multiple times a week for long stays with popular product offerings that are preferred even if it were not at a sports facility".

About Rinkside Café – a new venture created by John Dziak, BJ Pustovrh and Kerri Banasick specifically to meet the needs of the Printscape Arena and Southpointe customers. The Rinkside Café mission is to provide a special food and beverage experience never seen before at a sports facility, featuring premium coffee and espresso drinks, smoothies and other healthy blended beverages, fresh bakery and more available with real time online ordering and other amazing service conveniences. Look for our new website, full menu and hours of operation in the coming weeks.
